WITH LOVE- FROM GOD

If there is one place in the riveting diversity of India where there is intangible beauty, This state in the southern tip of the Indian peninsula is an easy winner owing to its mind blowing landscape of palm trees, beaches and backwaters. traditional Indian spas and herbs where one's body goes into complete relaxation, come travel with us to Kerala and discover the reason why this place is also known as GOD'S OWN COUNTRY.

THE ADOBE OF CLOUDS

If you're feeling jaded by the heat and hassles of India, Sikkim is the perfect antidote, It's clean and the mountain air is fresh. Best of all the people are among India's most friendly, with a charming manner that is unobtrusive and slightly shy. To really savor some true Sikkimese atmosphere, visit a village tongba-bar for some local millet beer: it's a bit like warm Japanese sake. Plunging mountain valleys are lushly forested, interspersed occasionally with rice terraces and groves of flowering rhododendrons. Tibetan-style Buddhist monasteries (gompas) add splashes of vermilion to the green ridgetops and are approached through atmospheric avenues of colourful prayer flags set on long bamboo poles, the great Mt. Kanchendzonga lise sharing the boundaries with Sikkim and Nepal

EQUILATERAL CONNECTION

India's Golden Triangle comprises the three most visited cities in the countries north west- Delhi, Agra and Jaipur, hosting some of the world Heritage sites and Taj Mahal- one of the Seven Wonders of the world and pride of India, reflecting the mughal influence over India. These cities are well connected to each other by good road and rail links. On the maps they form a roughly equilateral triangle. The triangle has been dubbed the "Golden" for the extra ordinary Wealth of cultural and historical splendors offered in each city.
